Far-Off Places (A Hotwife's Journey Book 4) Ellie Cummings

“I’m sorry,” Jennifer says as thunder crashes just outside of their room. “I didn’t know this would happen. I didn’t even think of it.”

Jennifer and Blake are off to the Dominican Republic for their two-year wedding anniversary, something they’ve been looking forward to for a while. Jennifer is nervous, of course, but there’s another feeling crawling up inside of her, something familiar that she doesn’t usually feel this frequently ... or this strongly.

She finds her urges almost overwhelming and soon she’s acting in ways that she never would, much to Blake’s confusion and concern. He tries to go along with it, of course — after all, isn’t this what they’ve been trying to accomplish over the past few months?

But as their vacation continues, things become more tense between them, and Jennifer soon finds herself lashing out at Blake. Now she’s forced to face the only possible explanation for all of this, and it’s something she wasn’t expecting at all ...
