What would happen if we lived in a world where the dead could come back to life? Where they could take their anger and rage out on an unsuspecting populace? They can't be shot. They can't be hurt. They can't be stopped. Faced with an ever-increasing horde of the raving dead, who could we call on to protect us?

The Hunter's Guild was formed to protect the living from the dead. Using their own lives as energy, Hunters fight the dead, sealing them away, protecting us from their advances, their attacks. But in the history of the Guild, one man stood out as the best. These are the stories of Hawk, the Lunatic Slayer, the single most talented and powerful Hunter the world has ever known. An orphan and a foundling, he knows nothing of his past, his heritage. Feared and reviled, yet he stands up for us against the dead. He protects us, he saves us. Without the Guild there would be no hope.

Without Hawk, there would be no chance.
