The Lucky Mermaid (The Bogue Harbor Series Book 1) Jeri Mareau

The Lucky Mermaid, first installment of the Bogue Harbor Series, will lure you in with the tail of a sexy young sea captain and the gorgeous woman who has reeled him in and stolen his heart. Fin Larson, CEO of a large fishing fleet in Carolina, has found the sassy red-headed vixen, Darcy Devlin, to be the lucky mermaid of his life. Readers will find themselves on a laugh out loud voyage filled with the steamy romance of two sea-crossed lovers. Sail along with them, as they try to keep their hearts above water during rough seas with the help of the endearing Bogue Harbor locals.

Darcy Devlin set sail on what she expected to be the adventure of a life time. After four years of hard work and an art degree to prove it, Darcy was going to throw the expectations of others to the wind and finally live for herself. With a summer job as a deckhand on a rock star's yacht, she could spend the summer on tropical islands making enough money to support herself during the first semester of graduate school. When the tides of the adventure turn, Darcy finds herself deserted in the quaint coastal community of Bogue Harbor with nothing but the clothes on her back and her pride that anchors her there. With the help and friendship of the colorful locals and by embracing her wild artistic spirit, Darcy makes a way for herself. The love of Fin, a wealthy and handsome fishing captain who inherited the famous Larsen Fishing Company, makes any thought of leaving Bogue Harbor seem impossible. To Captain Fin, Darcy is the greatest catch imaginable and with their future on the line he plans to hang on for dear life. When a jealous woman issues a storm warning, will the young couple's love and faith in one another be strong enough to batten down the hatches or will the couple be forced to abandon ship?
