One woman. Two shifters. One shot at love.

Iris Zahn's life is thrown into chaos when she and her sister, along with their best friend, are kidnapped from their home in Oregon. When their captors separate the three women, they vow to reunite, no matter the cost.

Of course, things go from bad to bonkers when she wakes up between two of the hottest men she's ever seen, and they both want to make her theirs.

Barron Davies and Evan Hearne have always shared everything, including women. Unfortunately, fate had yet to find them a mate to complete their triad. When they discover a curvy, tattooed and unfortunately battered vixen, they want to keep Iris in their bed and their hearts forever.

The life Barron and Evan dreamed of is within their grasp—if only they can get Iris to trust them with her heart and her secrets.

If you like determined shifters who prefer mates with a little sass and plenty of curves, then you'll love Annalise Nixon's sensual and humorous tale of unexpected and untraditional love.
