Will natural born Amish runner David Beiler stay true to himself and protect the woman he loves, even if it means giving up the chance to be a star? When an Englisch track coach scouts David Beiler, an Amish natural born runner, for a local high school team, David must choose between his developing interest in a young Amish woman, Salome, and a future as a track star. And even as he struggles with this decision, things go from bad to worse when Salome's widowed mamm, Sarah, is courted by a controlling and abusive Amish widower. Will David be able to protect Salome from terrifying abuse, even if it means giving up a chance to be a star? Find out in The Long Run by Ruth Price and Sarah Carmichael.
