Understanding the English Premier League: What you need to know about the world's most popular football league (Just a Simple Guide Book 3) Samson Carl Miller

With all the buzz surrounding the fall of huge football clubs such as Manchester United and Chelsea, more are eager to know more about the English Premier League (now officially known as the Barclays' Premier League).

This book helps to educate readers about the historical rise of what is traditionally known as the Top Four teams in England's top football league and what has emerged as the world's most closely watched (and lucrative) football tournament.

Readers who struggle to keep up with football-crazy friends will no longer have to find themselves in awkward situations with this easy-to-read guide.

For readers already acquainted with the jargon of the football world, you will also not be disappointed, with an elaborate account of what the author considers to be the top three teams in the league, namely Manchester United, Manchester City, Liverpool and Chelsea Football Clubs.

This book was written with much passion by a staunch (Liverpool) football fan who hopes to spread the love of football.
