In contemporary Boston, Rose Bridget Kelley learns of her mother's secreted Albanian ancestry, then unwittingly and unwillingly becomes embroiled in an ancient blood-feud (gjakmarrja) with an Albanian gangster clan. She reluctantly leaves the comfort of her home, her life, and her new fiancé, to travel to the strange and dangerous Albanian countryside to face her enemies on their home ground. Along her odyssey she encounters new threats and unexpected allies as she also discovers hidden strengths and passions in herself which may drastically alter her life -- if she survives.
