Although Wanda looks like an ordinary little girl, just as all witches do, she knows that the magic is inside of her, just as it is inside of you. The magical world of Wanda the Witch is a wonderfully written and illustrated children's bedtime story filled with adventure. It opens up the possibilities of magic in each and every child. It has a positive and magical theme that allows children to discover their true abilities by believing in themselves. This book allows parents to enhance their child's imagination and open up to the adventures of being creative. Through positive thoughts and acknowledgements, your child becomes a part of the magical world that is in us all. A true addition to any child's personal development.
