Extraordinary Places...Close to London describes 30 unusual and interesting places to visit close to London. All are lesser-known, yet interesting and beautiful places to visit, steeped in mystery and legend -- including stories of kings and queens, Norseman and witches. These tales are lovingly retold to enhance your visit and put it in historical context. The book includes directions on how to find the villages and what the visitor will find there today as well as some choice restaurants and pubs and, should you wish to stay the night, some very attractive inns and guest houses.
