Just Tell the Truth: Questions Families Ask When Gay Married Men Come Out Terry L. Norman

Just Tell the Truth is about the thousands of gay men in America who enter heterosexual marriages, father children, and remain quietly in the closet until the day they voluntarily disclose their true gender orientation. Its purpose is to provide clear, concise answers to the questions families ask when gay married men come out. In a broader sense, however, this book should prove helpful to anyone seeking to understand the journey toward orientational authenticity.
