Love for Angela Donna Marie

Respectful to Dominic and Lucille, her old-fashioned, but loving parents, Angela faithfully assists with the family business, the Varelli Caf©. Angela's sheltered past brings an unceasing shyness preventing her from blooming outside a protected world until Vince, a regular caf© customer whom she incessantly avoids, comes into her heart. After a lengthy endeavor, Vince finally exposes a concealed side of Angela, a woman filled with ultimate passion and desire. The relationship barely begins before tragedy hinders the culmination of their affections. As devastation eventually brings her strength and self-independence, Angela's virtuous nature becomes compromised. The heated attraction between she and Vince intensifies as passion fills the unpretentious young woman—the woman who, before a man like Vince walks into her life, is secluded in a lonely and private world of her own.
