Lady Harpur returns to narrate this grand homage to all things licentious. Together with Lord Ferrars, she and her husband plays host to a group that have no physical or moral boundaries at all. Partaking in all deeds and devices front and back, ménage, lesbian tribadism, and gamahuching a plenty, it is not long before their newest recruit and eager young disciple Clara loses herself in the wildest and most unrestrained of sexual abandons.

Pseudonymously written in 1885 and published the same year by the infamous Victorian publisher William Lazenby, responsible for The Oyster and The Boudoir erotic periodicals, and The Adventures of Lady Harpur (all also available from Locus Elm Press) this lascivious tour de force, replete with sumptuously graphic descriptions, really has something for everyone. A fine addition to any collection of the once suppressed.
