Female Breadwinners: How They Make Relationships Work Suzanne Doyle-Morris

Never before have female breadwinners - women who are the main earners at home - faced such a unique opportunity. These women are well placed to command respect both in the workforce and in the home, and their numbers are increasing globally. This social shift offers great potential and challenges to both the workplace and modern couples. 'Female Breadwinners' offers readers insights into how this social change can benefit women, men, families and business. It details the unvarnished lives and gritty but candid observations of real women who earn the majority of the income for their family.
