Spear-Gal thought her father was pretty awesome while she was growing up. He provided for her and her siblings, took them on trips, and spent time with them. Spear-Gal's cousin had a different type of relationship with her father. He was not there for them after her parents divorced. She felt abandoned and un-loved. We experience different types of relationships with our natural fathers. Some might describe their father as "Awesome" while others question, "Where's my father?" Regardless of the type of relationship we have with our natural fathers, there is a greater father that loves us like none other; and He wants to be our father.
