Yo, Heliaca: La odisea de un águila imperial (Spanish Edition) Iñigo Javaloyes

Esta novela narra la historia de Helíaca, un águila imperial nacida en una torre de alta tensión en el Monte del Pardo, a tiro de piedra de Madrid. Está inspirada en un ejemplar específico de esta especie, la más amenazada y simbólica de los cielos de España. En parte fábula y alegoría, esta historia es también el manifiesto singular de un águila imaginada a quien acompañan urracas, halcones y azores. El autor se nutre de sus experiencias de campo para escribir esta narración rítmica, rica en aliteraciones y palíndromos, donde las aves observan a los humanos con horror e impotencia. Poco después de nacer Helíaca, su padre, el legendario Gran Adalberti, desaparece sin dejar rastro. Helíaca se obstina en la idea de que su padre vive y está "allá por donde pasan las águilas". El recuerdo del padre desaparecido acompañará a Helíaca en su azaroso campeonato por las dehesas aguileras de España, donde nuestra heroína tendrá mentores y enemigos, y descubrirá la amistad, el amor y el aguijón punzante de la vergüenza.
