The is Part 1 of the three part Zycho: Year One.

In less than a year, the zycho virus crushes human civilization mercilessly. Survivors like Kyle Grady never expected it to get this bad, but the day soon comes when he has no choice but to set out with his daughter to find a new, safer home.

His hope is a survivalist vault in Washington mentioned to him by his brother before the lines of communication went down. But that is a thousand miles away across an American landscape devastated by disease, murder, mayhem, and the approaching winter.

Soon, Kyle and other normal, everyday people, must learn how to rely on each other or meet the same fate as 90% of the world's population.

In this first installment of the Zycho series, readers will be introduced to an action series not starring some special forces master soldier, but normal people forced to survive in an apocalyptic setting.
