Death and Ressurrection of Marriage Kris Haberman

The Beginning of the End... I remember the day like it was yesterday, my husband and I spent time together being forced for our children's school events. At this point of our marriage, weekends we each had our own agenda. Today I'm home with our 3 year old Jack, which was a typical scenario for me. Phil has involved himself with his many projects that did not involve me. How did we get to this place? How does any marriage get to this place? This is my story about how my marriage died and was reborn under spiritual awareness of each others feelings and needs.
