Extended massive orgasm: the novel Dr Steve M Bodansky

The story is told through the voice of Joseph Smith, not to be confused with the Mormon prophet of the same name. It is the sexually coming of age story of this young man as he grows from adolescence into a young adult. Joseph grows up in Manhattan in the 1990's and has an older brother Buddy who is a talented young musician. Joseph and Buddy are real close and have a strong bond between them. Buddy has a girlfriend named Maybe who is the granddaughter of famous sexologists. While Buddy is busy with his music career he gives Joseph the gift of having a sensual relationship with Maybe. Joseph and Maybe have amazing fun together. The bond they form is intensely erotic, but he can only see her on occasion. They have wild and exotic dates all over New York and even in Europe when Maybe and Buddy are living there. Joseph moves upstate and goes to high school and then college but he is not interested in any other girls. He continues to have a fantastic time with Maybe when they are able to get together. Joseph does date a lot of girls in Maybe's absence and learns to become quite talented in pleasuring them. No one else comes close to being as much fun as Maybe until he meets the girl of his dreams in graduate school. Joseph is totally in love with his new girlfriend Keri but still has strong feelings for Maybe. Once Joseph is involved with another woman, Maybe decides she wants him too. She is willing to share Joseph with Keri but will Keri feel the same way about Maybe? How will Joseph handle being in love with two women at the same time? How will the two women get along with each other? Will the grandparents of Maybe who are former teachers in a sexual school have the answers that he is looking for? What lessons in pleasure and living will the three of them get from the widow of the guru of the sex school?
