Teagan's senior year is almost over but with his and Summer's much anticipated freedom comes a new twist of unwanted fate. In the third installment of The Blue Moon Series, Summer's Moon, the soul mates are thrust into the world of Wolf Hunter's, werewolves and originals. Teagan is aware of the long standing bunch of werewolves who have lived for centuries however he didn't know that the death of Dallin would bring them into their lives. He hides the visit from Summer in hopes that since she is still trying to get over the death of her friends the fear of his family wouldn't be put upon her. Although his aren't sated, she finds out after being taken to them by Ruby's brother, Dicky who's also trying to get over his sister's death by finding out who did it. Eager to get answers, both Dicky and Dallin's father, Corbin have only Summer to provide them with the much needed truth. Summer finds that being the only one left after Dallin's search for a Soul Mate has not only made her the target for his father's fury but the object of his affections. Summer's rarity is revealed to Corbin and sets this Soul Mates life on an undesired track. She becomes trapped by the shackles of her past and is offered provided a key to her future. Only the man who will come to save her may or may not be Teagan.
