When Carly Peyton receives the cryptic text message from a number she doesn't recognize, she assumes it was mistakenly sent to her phone. Unfortunately, the puzzling text is followed by a visit from Baton Rouge Police Detective D.C. Logan, the investigator looking into the message sender's apparent suicide. The detective's laid-back demeanor doesn't mask his suspicion that Carly's involvement is more than coincidental when he discovers the victim's suicide was staged to hide the real cause of death – murder. With the Texting Killer updating Carly as each new victim falls, it's up to Detective Logan to discover the connection to her past while protecting his carefully guarded secret. They'll have to work together to uncover the killer's identity or her chance for a future with the detective won't survive – and neither will Carly.
