This book was conceived as a way to thank the Servicemen who have risked their lives, made innumerable sacrifices in their personal lives, shown unbelievable bravery, and displayed unselfish dedication to our country. Our students have gained academically as well as developed an appreciation for the sacrifices made on their behalf and on behalf of all American citizens. The servicemen have graciously responded to our students with letters, photos, and personal visits. Book includes letters from students to servicemen, response letters from servicemen, and is filled with photographs.
