Tasher Baker Undercover Detective

Two things were immediately apparent to her. Number one: Her rescuer was the finest man she'd ever seen in her life, and Number Two: He was none other than Raymond Carter.

Tasha would have recognized those eyes anywhere.

The unique gold-green of them left her absolutely breathless. But, aside from those eyes, the man looked completely different than their reference pictures.

He stood at least six and a half feet tall – well over even her lofty five- nine height. All his messy dreads had been sheared away, leaving a crop of short, defined curls topped with a fitted hat repping the New York Knicks. Broad shoulders stretched tight a dark blue button up, which had been rolled up at the sleeves to reveal two very tattooed, very muscular arms. He wore his pants low, as was the style, but not ridiculously low. She could definitely still see that he had nice legs, and the Timberlands he wore were well-treated leather. While most people might think the flashiest thing he wore was a thick gold chain, Tasha was more interested in his handsome, swarthy face. His skin was a caramel hue, his jaw bone pronounced with dimples beneath the well-groomed beard that covered his chin. His nose was long and straight – and those goddamn eyes...

Christ, the man was criminally hot...and a federally wanted criminal. .

Why the hell was she so nervous? One of the things she prided herself on was being cool under pressure.

But Raymond Carter...and his body...did things to her.

Wasn't this what she had been waiting for all night? Catching Raymond Carter in the act could very well make or break her career. And here she was, unable to think of anything else but his eyes.

Those gorgeous fucking eyes.

Raymond Carter Federally Wanted Criminal

Goddamn, where had she come from?

After all, it had been a while since Raymond Carter had taken a shine to a woman. The last girl he had been with had been obsessed with the wealth he'd accumulated in his profession – slinging coke and stealing the dreams of people young and old alike. He'd been in his twenties, reckless, and completely blinded to what he was doing to people's lives by the allure of immense gold chains, fancy cars and penthouses.

Of course, when the cops had caught his scent, his girl had disappeared just as quickly as all of his other so-called friends. It was funny, when you came up in the hood, cash was a lot more important than blood or loyalty.

Maybe that was why he had turned.

But right now, he didn't need to think about that. All he needed to think about was the smoking, curvy woman in front of him. In his life, he'd encountered far too many women of color who were obsessed with being rail thin. He liked a bit of meat on his women, personally, and the girl in front of him had T&A that wouldn't quit. She was like something plucked out of his hottest fantasies.

God knew he needed a break from all the drama going on in his life.
