Myanmar. It's not a country you'd often associate with colored pencil, is it? Or how about Malaysia, South Africa, Israel, the Netherlands or Greece? 120 Colored pencil artists from those countries and more are featured in this fourth volume of CP Treasures. Spreading around the world like warm honey, colored pencil has blossomed into a serious art medium pursued by tens of thousands. And when some of those tens of thousands reach a level of mastery like those featured in this book, their colored pencil prowess cries out for documentation, chronicling and most of all – trumpeting! It is with awe and pleasure that we humbly present to you this stunning collection of artworks created with the once lowly colored pencil. May these pages bring you wonder, illumination and inspiration. Many, many thanks and much appreciation to all the amazing artists included in this edition. The world and I are grateful.
