Alyssa Taylor is lost and alone in Africa.

Our Curvy heroine, Alyssa Taylor just got the opportunity of a lifetime. She had been given a new job working in South Africa, but to her, it is so far away from home in New York, and she is just missing home too much. She doesn't know a single person in this new land and can't help but feel vulnerable and alone.

Lost and wandering the street, a friendly handsome South African coworker helps her home one night, and although they couldn't be more different they form a connection.

Through sheer chance, they meet again, this time at a bar where Nathan, her new South African white knight rescues her from a drunken bar patron. Alyssa still feels so lonely, and one thing leads to another and they end up getting together. They keep their romance a secret from the office and Alyssa believes it's just to make everything simpler.

They have a wonderful time for the next few months and become infatuated with each other, and are both happier than they have ever been. Until it gets out that they are dating in the office and Nathan realizes his family will never accept Alyssa. While this was the new South Africa, there were still many people who had an old way of thinking, including his mother.

Nathan breaks it off with Alyssa and she is absolutely heartbroken. Her world is shattered into pieces, and it continues going down when she finds out that she is pregnant. Will their love overcome all odds and bring them back together? Is love truly blind?
