Bright Hunting Morn: The 125th Anniversary of the Radnor Hunt (Derrydale Press Foxhunter's Library) Collin F. McNeil

Founded on December 16, 1883, Radnor Hunt is the oldest continuously active recognized fox hunt in the United States. In 2008, Radnor celebrated its 125th Anniversary. Even in the face of two world wars, the great depression, encroaching suburbia, the proliferation of the automobile, disease, political squabbles, and financial crises, Radnor has remained one of North America's premier hunting establishments. This work chronicles the people, the places, the racing and the chasing that so many have enjoyed and loved for a century and a quarter! Bright Hunting Morn captures the extraordinary essence of a hunt that was celebrated from the outset, as one of the finest, and continues to flourish in the 21st century.
