This is a set of six uplifting and inspirational stories. These are stories with animals who have big dreams and hopes. The unique way that they go about pursuing their dreams is what makes these stories so captivating. If you like fun and playful stories with happy endings, these are the kinds of stories for you.

As the title says, these are stories about animals who love to explore, adventure, and to go above and beyond what anyone would normally expect. The stories serve as great lesson and inspirations for all ages! There are lessons of friendship, sharing, dreaming big, never giving up, believing in yourself, and helping others, to name some.

OVERVIEW OF STORIES INSIDE

The Penguin and the Whale

All Akid the penguin has ever wanted to do is to fly in the air like other birds. But everyone knows penguins can't fly, right? Even so, Akid won't give up no matter what. His life changes when he makes friends with a great big whale named Port. They work together to see how they can make Akid's dreams come true. How will they do it, exactly?

Bongo Goes to School

This is a funny and playful story about a boy named Luke who takes his dog Bongo to school. Bongo is just a dog that wants to go to school and learn, but dogs are not allowed at school – everyone knows that. It turns out that Bongo is actually quite a talented pooch. He can walk on two legs, and he can even talk! Clearly, this is no ordinary dog.

The Spirit of the Oak Tree

Emilie is 9 years old, but she feels like she is ready to be a grown up. She doesn't care to play the silly little games of children. Instead, she likes to play with her dolls and pretend like she is an adult.

One day, her father takes her to the park. As she arrives, she sees children dancing under a great big oak tree. Strangely, she doesn't hear any music, so she goes to see what they are doing. She meets a mysterious girl with blond hair, dusty cheeks, and bright yellow eyes.

The Squirrel with the Most Nuts in the World

In this story, squirrels Marvin and Scotty have been friends for a long time. One day, Marvin has trouble finding any nuts, and he realizes that Scotty has collected all the nuts in the area for himself. No matter how much Marvin asks to have a nut for himself and his family, Scotty won't help. It turns out that Scotty wants to be the squirrel with the most nuts in the world.

One day Scotty is in terrible trouble, and the only way he could ever get out of it is from the help of someone else. The problem is since Scotty only cares about himself, there aren't a lot of people left that care about Scotty anymore. It is all up to Marvin – will he help out his old friend when he needs it the most? Will Scotty ever change his ways?

An Octopus in a Strange Land

A curious octopus wants to know if there is anything beyond his home in the sea. He goes on a big adventure to explore and he discovers a strange new land. This strange new land is what we would normally just call land. But to the octopus who has never been there before, it is a magical and wonderful new place.

Wolfie Goes to Town

Wolfie, Wolfington, and Wolflet are identical triplet brothers. They are young wolves, and they always watch out for each other. Wolfington is the smart one. Wolflet is the fast one. And Wolfie... well, he's just Wolfie. He's the baby, and the other two always need to look after him to make sure he doesn't get into trouble.
