Analiесе is young, independent, funny, outspoken and intelligent.

And it may just get her killed...

When young Australian doctor, Analiесе, goes on the trip of a lifetime, touring the UK with her sister, she has no idea that her life is about to change forever. After being trapped by a cave-in at one of England's famous historic castles, Analiесе and castle stunt-rider, Adam manage to make their way back to the surface, only to discover that something is not right.

It is the right castle, but the wrong time.

And now, the unlikely pair are stuck in the sixteenth century, a time when superstition and witch-hunt hysteria are at their peak. While Adam's years of employment posing as an historical knight may help him fake his way through, Analiесе is everything a woman of the sixteenth century should not be: outspoken, independent, and a doctor.

And Matthew Hopkins, the famous witch hunter, has just come to town...
