L'atlante di tenebra (Italian Edition) John Stephens

Kate, Michael ed Emma sono stati strappati ai genitori durante una notte di Natale di molti anni prima, forse per proteggerli da un destino oscuro e misterioso. Ma il destino non si può ingannare. E il destino, per loro, ha la forma di tre libri antichissimi, dal potere immenso e oscuro, legati ai ragazzi da un'antica profezia. Gli stessi che il Feraie Magnus, il loro peggiore nemico, vuole riunire per portare a compimento il malvagio disegno che persegue sin dalla notte dei tempi: ottenere il potere assoluto sul mondo umano e sul mondo magico. È lui che ha fatto rapire la minore dei fratelli, Emma, la quale, secondo la profezia, è la Custode dell'Atlante di tenebra, l'unica che possa ritrovare il terzo Libro, quello della Resa dei conti.

Il compito che aspetta la piccola Emma è arduo: discendere nel mondo dei morti per ritrovare il Libro, ed escogitare un criterio di giudizio capace di discriminare tra le anime dei trapassati. Ma Emma, dal carattere ribelle e solo apparentemente forte, rischia di non rivedere più la superficie e gli amati fratelli...

Aiutati dal dottor Pym, che da quella lontana notte di Natale si prende cura di loro, dal gigante buono Gabriel e da una serie di personaggi indimenticabili, i ragazzi dovranno affrontare la più difficile delle battaglie. Riusciranno a sconfessare la profezia che ha decretato la loro morte, salvando, oltre al loro stesso futuro, le sorti dell'umanità?
