The Day My Father Died Was One of the Best Days of My Life JR Ingrisano

With a title like “The Day My Father Died Was One of the Best Days of My Life,” you would expect JR Ingrisano’s brief, true-story booklet to be real downer. If so, you will be pleasantly surprised. The premise: Fathers aren’t always all that good at ... well, at being fathers. Some are terrific. However, many struggle, leaving scars their children can bear for a lifetime. “The Day My Father Died” tells the true story of JR’s determination to build a relationship with his father ... whether his father liked it or not. Told with candor and honesty, this is a sweet and sad story of redemption that candidly discusses the all-to-common disconnect between fathers and their children ... and how one man stubbornly decided to change that relationship.
