Sergeant Logan Pierce and Senior Corporal Clay Foster have fought past all the obstacles that stood in the way of their relationship. Now, they are in love and committed to each other as Dominant and submissive.

As the holidays approach, all they want is time to enjoy each other away from their demanding jobs as SWAT officers. But someone threatens to ruin their first Christmas together.

Logan refuses to let anyone or anything destroy his submissive's happiness. What can he do to save Christmas for his love?

A Christmas Short Story for The Sergeant. This story can be enjoyed as a stand alone, but your experience will be enhanced by reading The Sergeant first.

Praise for The Sergeant

"Hottest book of 2014 so far!"

"I loved the struggle and the growth Clay's character had to go through before they could have their HEA."

"The love story between Logan and Clay was beautiful to watch. And while the sex scenes were incredibly hot, you don't ever forget that you're reading a love story between two bull headed men!"

"The happiness and security Clay feels as Logan's sub practically radiate off the pages of this great book. The loss he feels when he has to take off his collar to go to work literally made me cry."

- Tina, The Novel Approach

"You wanted things to work out, because you had two people who you liked as people, and obviously were meant to be together, trying to find their way into the right relationships for themselves."

- Denise, Two Chicks Obsessed with Books & Eye Candy
