After all the trust she had placed on Collin, she just couldn't believe that it had finally happened to her. Being cheated on was something that Camilla hadn't experienced before. It hurt more than she had anticipated, and she thought for a moment that she would die from the heartache.

Collin spends most of his time thinking about how he is going to explain himself to her and maybe makes things right. He keeps on calling and texting Camilla, but she blocks all of his calls and texts and chooses to forget all about him.

Camilla opts to spending time with her girlfriends all the time and try as much as possible to act normal. They all are eager to look for boyfriends, and Camilla joins in the boyfriend search bandwagon. Collin moves out of the house, and Camilla is relieved since it meant she could move all over the house without having to bump into anyone she didn't want to, and at that moment, that was Collin.

Once the holiday is over, she couldn't wait to go back to campus. Camilla wants to enjoy college life while she could and thought it would make her forget all about Collin and all the heartache that he had brought upon her. Collin doesn't give up on Camilla and keeps on contacting her friends wanting to know how he was going to get her.

Will Camilla get back to Collin? Will Collin give up and move on with his newfound girlfriend, Yolanda? Will their parents ever find out what was going on when they thought Camilla and Collin were over and done with?
