Behind Closed Doors (The Gypsy Moon Trilogy) (Volume 2) Veronika Sophia Robinson

Behind Closed Doors Book Two, The Gypsy Moon Trilogy As Starr Linden begins writing a series of syndicated articles on the theme of Behind Closed Doors, she soon realises that the most potent story of all is within her own family. Her aunt Astrid's journey to reclaiming motherhood brings her family of origin together, and as Astrid finds a way through the trauma which has eroded her heart for decades, she discovers that, in one way or another, we all live behind closed doors, and that what lives in our heart is visible to the whole world. In this continuing family saga, Astrid wonders: is it possible to forgive the person who should have protected you? Can love grow in a barren heart? Is motherhood instinctual, or must it be learnt? Or perhaps, like moss, it doesn't need roots to grow and thrive.
