Bible Lessons for the New Believer - Lesson #1: Blessed to be a Blessing Tee Tee Soul

As the new believer begins their journey as a Christian, it is undoubtedly the ploy, plan, and objective of the enemy to prevent him from completing his journey free from persecution or problems. From the time one becomes a born again believer, they become participants in a spiritual war. It is a war that cannot be waged or fought with human weapons, but involves weapons of the spiritual realm. 2 Cor. 10:3-5 states:

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds. 5 casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ.

We are encouraged in Eph. 6:11 to put on the whole armor of God that we may be able to stand against the trickery and schemes of the devil. To be specific, it states:

Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Putting on the whole armor of God involves ingesting God's word. It is the objective of the author to be instrumental in helping the new believer prepare for the battle in which they have become partakers, through lessons that will stimulate their spiritual man, and inspire and motivate their inner man.

Each lesson is geared toward bringing the new believer into an intimate relationship with the Father, and to show him that God is not as the enemy would have him believe, but that He is a loving, tender, and compassionate God who understands his weaknesses. Heb. 4:14-15 lends these words to the reader:

14 Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. 15 For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin.

As you ingest the words written within the pages of this literary presentation, it is the desire of the author that you come away with a broader understanding of where you are in your Christian journey, as you are encouraged to delve deeper in your studies.

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (2 Tim. 2:15) KJV
