This Legal Suspense Thriller is a Novel of Corporate Greed based on true stories and actual events. Brian Stone refuses to be corrupted and is wrongfully fired on "BLOODY MONDAY" January 26, 2009. Denied Wages, Benefits & Commissions Stone embarks on a 30 month journey across the landscapes of Hartford, Boston, Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard & the Cayman islands; against the backdrop of the Great Recession to recover his earnings and to clear his reputation. He discovers his Employer's fraud leads into the very Board Rooms of Industry Giants. He discovers that Corporations, the Legal Profession, the Courts and the US Congress have conspired for decades to undermine American Employment rights. As his investigation threatens the wrongdoers he is pitted against all odds as his life and the lives of others are in danger. This Legal Suspense Thriller, with Political overtones, exposes the Corporate wrongdoing that brought on the Great Recession and threatens the future of America while calling for greater Employee Rights Protections.
