Hope Under Mistletoe (Seasons of Hope Book 1) Jessica R. Patch

A rowdy bar owner. A widowed pastor's wife. And Christmas hope that brings them together.

After widow Eden Snow's church almost burns to the ground, she's compelled to find a temporary place to hold services and Christmas cantata practices.

Has-been hockey player, Knox Everhart, has a reputation for being fast on the ice and with women. Except Eden. She's always been a fascinating mystery to him, which is why he agrees to let her use the back room of his bar—with one rule: No converting his customers.

But when Eden brings the church to the bar, it offers something the bottle can't. Hope. And he finds himself falling in love with a woman and a Savior he feels unworthy to pursue.
