An attempt to document the humanitarian crisis suffered by the indigenous tribes of Guatemala, the images in this collection bring to light a topic that is little-known around the world. In addition to the black-and-white photographs, the book includes a chronology of events as well as various essays written by different leaders and writers that place these events within a historical context.

Documentando la tragedia humanitaria que han sufrido los pueblos indígenas de Guatemala desde 1954 a 1986, las imágenes en esta colección intentan poner al descubierto un tema poco reconocido a nivel mundial. Además de las fotografías en blanco y negro, se incluyen en este libro una cronología de eventos, al igual que varios ensayos escritos por diferentes líderes y escritores que sitúan los eventos dentro de un contexto histórico.
