They claim he signed up for this. They claim his amnesia is from a night of heavy drinking. But something doesn't seem right. Draxin Stormgarde awakens in the Thieves Guild with no memory of his past and no idea how he got there. While trying to escape, he overhears them plotting to assassinate the king. And he's the person they expect to do it. After a raid gone awry, Draxin is taken into custody by Ravelin, a shadowy royal agent tasked with protecting the king. Ravelin wants nothing more than to let Draxin rot in prison for conspiring with the guild, but his memory holds the secret to their success. Draxin and Ravelin race against time to stop the Thieves Guild before the king arrives in town for the annual Elk Day Festival. But the more clues they uncover, the more they realize how dire the situation in Arwood actually is. The disappearance of the prince has the kingdom on the brink of war with their powerful neighbors to the east, and the first magic sighting in decades has the city on edge. Throughout his quest to save the king and unearth the demons of his past, Draxin must outwit a menagerie of fearsome beasts and sinister villains to keep from literally losing his head. Will Draxin solve the riddle of regicide in time to save the king, or will the poisonous Thieves Guild prevail?
